

BECOME AN AFA QUALIFIED DEMENTIA CARE PROVIDER

Long Island Home Care Agencies, Companion Agencies, Assisted Living Facilities, Adult Homes, Centers for Nursing and Rehabilitation, Adult Day Care Facilities, Senior Centers...

- Are you prepared for the increase in clients/residents with dementia?
- Do you want to improve the quality of care you provide for individuals with Alzheimer's disease or a related dementia?
- Do you want to improve job satisfaction for your employees?
- Do you want your staff to have a nationally recognized qualification in dementia care?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, this training opportunity is for you.

Dementia Care Professionals of America (DCPA), a division of the Alzheimer's Foundation of America (AFA), has approved select staff members of Day Haven Adult Day Services to provide community training to organizations interested in becoming AFA Qualified Dementia Care Providers. As a result, Day Haven's select staff can provide full-day training to your employees which lead to qualification as an AFA Qualified Dementia Care Provider and membership to DCPA upon completion of the course and passage of an exam.

- Train and qualify up to 20 staff members in one day
- Training includes DCPA's DVD training, live presentation, role playing, and group discussions
- Upon passing the exam, staff members will receive a Qualification certificate and membership to DCPA, which includes an enameled membership pin, educational newsletters, professional discounts, and training Webinars.

Training topics will include:

- A basic understanding of dementia
- Management of activities of daily living
- Management of behavioral problems
- Principles of basic care
